> WAR DEPARTMENT, WASHINGTON CITY, June 23, 1861.

Major General Din, New York: A dispatch from Gen. Grant, dated yesterday, 27th, 3 30 p. m., at his headquarters, reports no operations in front, except from our own guns, which fire into the bridge at Petersburg from a distance of 2,000 yards. The dispatch gives the following intelligence from rebel papers: " Fetersburg papers of the 25th states that Hunter is striking for Jackson River Depot. about forty miles north of Salem, and says that if he reaches Covington-which they suppose he will do-with most of his forces, but with loss of material, he will be safe.

"The same paper accuses Hunter of destroy" ing a great amount of private property, and stealing a large number of wagons, horses, and cattle.

"The same paper also states that Wilson destroyed a train of cars loaded with cotton and furniture, burned the depot building, &c. at Burkesville, and destroyed some of the track, and was still pushing south. All the railreads leading into Richmond are now destroyed, and some of them badly."

A dispatch from Gen. Sherman, received this morning, reports that yesterday, (June 27,) an unsuccessful attack was made by our forces on the enemy's positions, which resulted in a loss to us of between two and three thousand-The following particulars are given : " Pursuant to my orders of the 21th, a diversion was made on each flank of the enemy, especially down the Sandtown Road, at 8 a. m. McPherson attacked the south west end of Ker essw, and Thomas at a point about a mile fariber south, at the same time. The skira ishers and artillery along the whole line kept up a sharp fire. Neither attack succeeded. though both columns reached the enemy s works, which are very strong. " McPher-on reports his loss about 500, and Thomas about 2,000. The loss is particularly beavy in G neral field officers. Gen. Harker is reported mortally wondded; also, Col. Dan. McCook, commanding a brigade; Col. Rice, 57th Ohio, very seriously; Col. Barnhall, 40th Illinois, and Col. Augustine, 55th Illinois, are killed "McPherson took a hundred prisoners, and Thomas about as many, but I do not suppose we inflicted heavy loss upon the enemy, as he kep! close behind his parapets." No other military intelligence has been received by the Department. EDWIN M. STANTON, Secretary of War.

FROM THE FRUNT. More Fighting with Sheridan's Cavalry-The Rebels make Another Ineffectual Attack upon h is rear.

The steamer Connecticut, Capt Stranahan, arrived here this morning from City Point, bringing up four hundred and five wounded, including thirty-five officers. The Connecticut left City Point on Sunday evening at 5 o'clock, and dropped down to Powhatan Landing where she expected to take on three hundred men of Sheridan's command, wounded in the attack of the rebels in the rear of our cavalry but on her arrival there it was found that the Eliza Washington had taken on these wound ed. The Connecticut started from Powhatan Landing at half-past three yesterday morning.

There is no news of interest from the front, but the usual picket firing and skirmishing is kept up by both sides with much vigor. On Sunday night Sheridan's force had not all succeeded in getting across the river, but boats were there ferrying them over as rapidly Sunday night heavy musketry firing was eard in the direction of Wilcox's Landing, he p int at which Sheridan has been crossing. and it was believed that the rebels had again attacked him.

The rebels pay no respect to our hospital flags and on Thursday last they fired upon one of our hospital trains from a battery statio ed near Petersburg, killing and wounding several horses, but, fortunately, doing no injur o the occupants of the ambulances. On Friday af ernoon they again fired upon another train, but their shots fell short of the

A hospital landing has been established on the Appetomax river, some two miles above City Point, from whence the wounded are taken by steamers. Several thousand wounded are there, and owing to the extremely warm weather the mortality among them is considerable. The soil of the country in the vicinity of Pe-terabur la so terribly dry, that it is not possi-He for either side to make a sudden movement for surprise, as immense clouds of dust arise upon the least movement. Nothing definitely has been heard from Wilson, who, as stated by us yesterday, has gone on another cavalry raid. There were several wounded rebels brought up on the Connecticut, among whom was a rehel lieutenant, who has lost an arm. Large numbers of our wounded are being eat North, and the hospital steamer State of Mame has sailed for New York with several hundred on board. The majority of the wounded brought up on the Connecticet are stretcher cases. The following officers are a zong them: Capt. J. G. M. Blar, Aid to Gen. Mott; Capt. P. Glyun, Sth N. Y.; Capt. J. E. Steward, 3d Del; Capt. T. Cassidy, 110th Pa; Capt. W. D. Morrison, 7th Md.; Capt. G. Loveit, 107th Pa; Capt. F. A. Myers, 72d Pa.; Capt. D. C. Ketchum, 61th N. Y.

Butier agd Generals Carr and Ransom, who were landed at Fortress Monroe. At the time the Van terbilt left Bermuda Hundred, and all of the night previous, all was quiet in the neighborhood of Gen. Bu ler's command, except skirmishing along the picket line. No heavy firing was heard in any direction on Sunday night. Butler is strongly entrenched, and the enemy can have no hope of dislodging him unless they bring such a powerful force of all arms against him as would dangerously weaken other points of their line. The utmost confidence prevails throughout the entire army. Rebel deserters-many of them omeers of the rank of lieutenant-continue to come in, and they universally report more or less demoralization and disaffection not only among the ranks of the rebels, but among many officers. One deserter, a member of the 1st South Carolina cavalry, who came in Sunday night. reports that Lee has sent two brigades of cayalry (among them the 1st South Carolina cavalry,) to West Virginia, to act against our forces there. This deserter also understood that infantry force was sent in the same direc-

The amount of accepted offers must be deposited with the Treasurer or other officer or association authorized to act under this notice on advice of acceptance of offer, or as follows: One-third on or before the 10th; one-third on or before the 10th; one-third on or before the 15th; and the balance, including the premium and original two per cent deposit, on or before the 20th of July. Interest on bonds will begin with the date of deposit. The rebel Gen. Winder is reported sick with typhoid fever, and his recovery doubtful. Another deserter states that an order was issued from headquarters a few days ago, stating that the Yankees had, "with characteristic cruelty, and a disregard of the usages of warfare in all civilized nations, placed a number of helpless prisoners in conspicuous places in Charleston harbor, exposed to the fire of our rebel) batteries, in order to prevent us (rebels) from keeping the vandals away from Charleston; while at the same time they (the Federals) are murdering the helpless women and children of that city." This was intended, the deserter says, to operate upon the South Uarolinians in Lee's army, as appeals were made to them to revenge their friends.

Sheridan's force was still crossing at Windmill Point yesterday morning, but it was expected all would be safely over in a few hours.

THE BEBEL STRAIT.

Among the prisoners captured in front of Petersburg within the last few days several grey-headed old men over 60 years of age and boys from 14 to 16 years of age have been captured with guns on their shoulders. They say, one and all, that they were impressed into the rebel army, and this fact shows the desperate straits to which Lee has been requeed to fill his depleted ranks.

GRANT'S CAPTURES. Since General Grant first crossed the Rapdan he has captured over thirty stands of rebel colors and about 17,00 prisoners, not including those captured within the last four or five days, while his own loss in prisoners is less than one third that number.

WOUNDED FROM SHERIDAN. The Mary Washington arrived here about one o'clock to-day with about 200 wounded from Sheridan's command, but she was ord red to report to Alexandria. Her news is anticipated by the arrival of the mail boat Charlotte Vanderbilt and the hospital steamer Connecticut, both of which left several hours

IMPORTANT DESPATCH FROM GEN-ERAL HUNTER.

We stop the press to publish the following important bulletin from the Secretary of War WAR DEPARTMENT, WASHINGTON, 4 p. m., June 28, 1864.

Major General Diz, New York: The following despatch has just been received from General Hunter:

"HEADQUARTERS DEPARTMENT WEST VA, LOUP CREEK, NEAR GAULEY, June 29, 1861. I have the honor to report that our expedition has been extremely successful, inflicting great injury on the enemy, and victorious in every engagement. Running short of ammunition, and finding it impossible to collect supplies while in the presence of an enemy believed to be superior to our force in numbers, and constantly receiving rein forcements from Richmond and other points, I deemed it best to withdraw and have succeded in doing so without serious loss to this point where we have met abandant supplies of food and lorage. A detailed report of our operations will be forwarded immediately. The command is in excellent heart and health, and ready after a few days rest for service in any direction." Nothing later than my telegram of this morning has been received from General Grant or General Sherman.

EDWIN M. STANTON, Secretary of War.

CONGRESSIONAL.

TUESDAY, June 29. SENATE .- On metion of Mr. Fessenden, a committee of conference was ordered on the disagreeing amendments of the two Houses to the tariff bill; and the Chair appointed Messrs.

Fessender, Morgan and Pomeroy on the part of the Senate. Mr. Carlile offered a resolution to add 25 per cent, to the salaries of the employees or the Senate whose compensation does not exceed $1,200 for the year ending June 30, 1864; which was referred.

Mr. Morrill called up the bill, in addition to the several acts, concerning commercial intercourse between loyal and insurrectionary States, and to provide for the collection of cup tured and abandoned property and prevention of frands in States declared in insurrection. Mr. Morrill offered an amendment providing that any officer of the United States, civil, military, or naval, or any sutler, soldier, m trine, or other person, who shall violate any provision of this act, or who shall transport or sall, or otherwise dispose of therein any goods whatsoever, except in pursuance of license and authority of the President, and under rules and regulations of the Secretary of the Treasury, shall be liable to indictment as for a misdemeanor, and a fine not exceeding $5 000, and to imprisonment in the penitentiary not exceeding three years.

Mr. Brown thought this bill went too far, in rendering liable to the penitentiary those who might unintentionally violate the regulations of the Secretary of the Treasury. Mr Morrill replied that the bill simply pro vided for the enforcement of the present law, as great frauds had been committed

Mr. Trumbull said the bill was only intended to punish those who do wrong and give ail to to the enemy, and suggested several amend ments to the amendment, which Mr. Morrill accepted, striking out that part which renders a violation of the rules and regulations of the Secretary of the Treasury punish tole, and providing for the punishment of those was knowingly and wilfully viols e the law. Mr. Doolittle offered an amendment which was agreed to, making the penalties in the bill at ply to officers who wilfally embezzle and misappropriate private or public property, or make false returns. Mr. Morrill's emendment as above modified,

An amendment beretorors of red by Mr. Morrill, was also adopted, which allows train as it may be necessary to the mecessities of legal persons residing in insurrectionary States within our army lines, and to eachle them to market in the loyal States the products of their own labor or the laborof freedmen and others employed and paid by them.

The bill was then passed—year 29, anye 13.

Mr. Powell moved to take the question on the pending motion of Mr. Howard to reconsider the vote by wince the bil to prevent military interference in elections was passed. The motion to reconsider was rejected -year 19. nave 23.

Mr Biddle called up the resolution to allow all Senators and Representatives in Congress to visit all forts and military hospitals and prisons; and it was reject d-yeas 17, nay 21. The bill to establish the Freedmen's Bureau came up as the unfinished business, the pen iing question being on the amendment of Mr. Trumbull, to amend the clause in which coafiscation is referred to, to repeat the joint resolution explanatory of the Confiscation act. The amendment was adopted-yeas 23, nays

Mr. Doolittle offered an amendment, as follows: That all assistant commissioners, local superintendents and clerks, as well as the supervising special agents appointed within the States within which the insurrection exists, and the authority of the civil tribunal is over throws, shall be so far deemed to be in the military service of the United States as to be liable to trial by court martial or military commission, to be ordered by the Commanding General of the Military Department within which they act as such assistant commissi merers. local superintendents, clerks, or supervising special agents; and for all offences amounting to a felony, for any act of embezzlement or wilful misappropriation of public or private property; for any wilful act of oppression of any freedman or of any loyal inhabitant; for any act of taking or receiving directly or indirectly any money or thing of value; for any act done or omitted by them in their official capacity; or for being in any manner interested in any purchase of cotton. tobacco, sugar, or any other article produced upon any lands leased or worked under the provisions of this act, or in carrying on any business, or in being in any matter directly or indirectly interested in any business carried on under the superintendence of the officers appointed under this act, or for any other wilful violation of their official duties, upon conviction thereof, shall be subject to punishment by fine not exceeding $10,000, or imprisonment at hard labor for a period not exceeding five years, or by both such fine and mprisonment. After debate, in which Messrs. Wilson and Sumper favored the amendment and Messrs. Hendricks and Davis opposed it, on the ground that it was unconstitutional to try persons not in the Military or Naval service by court martial, though they were auxious for the proper punishment of such crimes as were sure to be committed under the bill. The amendment was agreed to.

House.-Mr. Hooper called up the Senate amendments to the loan bill, and agreed to the same, after having, by a vote of yeas 71, navs 7. an amendment of Mr. Holman, providing that nothing in this act shall impair the right of any State to tax the bonds, notes, and other obligations of the United States as other personal property is taxed. The amendments of the Senate were concurred in. The House reconsidered the vote-yeas 83, pays 71-by which last night was rejected the substitute of Mr. Smithers for the amendatory enrollment bill.
